

2024 Biennial Award for an OUTSTANDING MASTER'S THESIS ON LITERACY

The Literacy Association of Ireland invites graduate students from Education, Special Education, Psychology and related disciplines to apply for LAI's 10th biennial award for an outstanding Master's thesis. This award is open to those who have submitted or who plan to submit a Master's thesis in the area of literacy between: 1st September, 2022 and 31st August, 2024.

Applications may include: Master's by Research only or Master's with minor thesis (12,000 words minimum to 20,000 words maximum). The research must have been conducted in Ireland (Republic/N.I). Fáiltítear roimh iarratais trí Ghaeilge.

Shortlisting will take place (according to criteria – see right) and finalists will make a short presentation (15-20 mins) of their research at the Literacy Association of Ireland Annual Conference to be held on November 8th/9th, 2024 at Marino Institute of Education, Dublin.

Shortlisted finalists will be notified by October 18th and must confirm their availability to present at the annual conference shortly thereafter.

If two or more theses are deemed by the judges to be of equal quality, the award may be shared.

The winner(s) will be presented with the award(s) of €500 and the LAI Medal during the conference.

Applicants must be current members of LAI.

Evaluation Criteria

Thesis summaries will be evaluated by an independent external panel convened by the Literacy Association of Ireland according to criteria which will include:

- Relevance and significance of the research question(s);
- Quality of theoretical/conceptual rationale;
- Appropriateness of research design;
- Significance of the research findings/contribution to the field;
- Clarity of writing and organisation of summary
- Breadth of references.

In addition, the communicative clarity of the presentation at the conference will be considered.

How to Submit

Applicants must submit the following by September 20th, 2024 via this Google Form.

Note that you will need to be logged into a Gmail account to submit using the form.

- Author's name, contact details and thesis title
- Attach two PDF copies of a 3,000-word summary of the thesis. One of the PDFs must be blinded (PDF should not include any identifying details: e.g. your name/supervisor/institution; ensure the title of the thesis summary is on the first page).
